PHASE VI

Aim:

At the end of this undergraduate internship period, the students will experience the basic earnings of the pre-clinical medicine. They will keep ethical standards, apply and promote preventive medicine. In order to reach these goals, Phase VI aim is:

Educational Aims

- In Emergency Medicine, the students approach to medical and surgical methods is important. They should evaluate the examination results and apply interventional treatment. The forensic medicine reports should be prepared, also traumatic patients organization is of vital importance from the point of diagnosis and treatment. Also, cardiopulmonary resuscitation and endotracheal tube applications are important.

- In Pediatrics, should examine pediatric patients, evaluate results, diagnose and treat them, dealing both out-patients and in-patients wards.

- In Obstetrics and Gynecology, students should examine patients, diagnose and treat patients. Also they should examine pregnant, deliver babies and follow-up mothers and newborn.

- In General Surgery, students should perform surgical examination; diagnose acute abdomen pain, bleeding, burns and trauma. Students also perform pre and post operative care and explain anestheticecic applications.

- In Rural Medicine, students should be aware of the importance of public health approach. Also, epidemiologic plan can be organized and applied. The results of this plan should be analyzed and reported.

- In two clinical clerkships elected of one month duration, students should follow-up the applications stated above.